

Epistle Reading

St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians 6:12-20

Brethren, "all things are lawful for me," but not all things are helpful. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be enslaved by anything. "Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food" -- and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is not meant for immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. And God raised the Lord and will also raise us up by his power. Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I therefore take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never! Do you not know that he who joins himself to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For, as it is written, "The two shall become one flesh." But he who is united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. Shun immorality. Every other sin which a man commits is outside the body; but the immoral man sins against his own body. Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God? You are not your own; you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body and in your spirit which belong to God.

Gospel Reading

The Gospel of Luke 15:11-32

The Lord said this parable: "There was a man who had two sons; and the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of the property that falls to me.' And he divided his living between them. Not many days later, the younger son gathered all he had and took his journey into a far country, and there he squandered his property in loose living. And when he had spent everything, a great famine arose in that country, and he began to be in want. So he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would gladly have fed on the pods that the swine ate; and no one gave him anything. But when he came to himself he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough and to spare, but I perish here with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me as one of your hired servants.' And he arose and came to his father. But while he was yet at a distance, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his servants, 'Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet; and bring the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and make merry; for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.' And they began to make merry. Now his elder son was in the field; and as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. And he called one of the servants and asked what this meant. And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has received him safe and sound.' But he was angry and refused to go in. His father came out and entreated him, but he answered his father, 'Lo, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed your command; yet you never gave me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends. But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your living with harlots, you killed for him the fatted calf!' And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. It was fitting to make merry and be glad, for this your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost, and is found.'"

Rev. Fr. Elias Koucos

My Dear Beloved Youth,

We have recently concluded the first major feast days of the New Year January 1st, St. Basil the Great and on January 6th, the Feast of Epiphany (the manifestation of the Holy Trinity at Christ's baptism). We read in the Gospel of St. Mark that God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit appeared at Jesus' baptism. As we continue through the New Year and progress in our growth and knowledge of our Lord let us continue to write a new page with words of hope, of love and of self-control and continue to make room to receive God, as He appeared to us. Hope makes all things work and love makes all these things beautiful. His appearance renews and transforms us, making us children of the most high God by entering into communion with Him through the mysteries of the church—the Holy Eucharist, the Blood and Body of Christ. Continue in your efforts to attend worship services and Sunday School so the fruits of your faith will make all things possible. Please let me know if there is anything you need and if I can be of help in your continued journey through the New Year and always.

God bless,

Rev. Fr. Elias Koucos

IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM FATHER MATTHEW

GIVING EACH DAY TO GOD

Having risen from sleep, let your first thought be of God, your first word and prayer directed to God, Who is the Creator and Sustainer of your life, Who has forever the power to strike or to heal, to save or to let perish.

Prostrate yourself and give thanks to God, Who has wakened you from sleep and has not allowed you to perish in your sinfulness, but patiently awaits your return.

Make a turn to the better by saying with the psalmist: "I remembered the works of the Lord", for the good way to heaven cannot be properly trodden except by those who begin each day well.

From early morning be a seraphim in prayer, a cherubim in action, and an angel in attitude. From this point in life onward, waste no time, but attend only to what is necessary, especially what is necessary for the salvation of your soul.

In all your actions, all your words, all your deliberations, keep your mind in God: do not have anything in mind but Christ, so that no other image may touch your heart except the pure image of Christ, your God and Savior.

Arouse yourself to the love of God by every possible means. If you wish to love God unceasingly, look on His presence continually with your inner eye and for His sake abandon every evil deed, word, and thought. For this reason, you must do everything honestly, speak honestly, and think honestly and humbly.

Meekness should go together with praise, humility, and honesty. A quiet and humble word should be truthful and useful, but when you are silent, think over the words you are going to say. An idle or harmful word should never pass your lips.

Be watchful in yourself against rage, arrogance, and argumentativeness. If you are angry, control yourself.

Be always moderate in food and drink. Be generous in all things, and God will bless you. Remember to have the remembrance of death before you, so that you live each and every day in heartfelt repentance, beseeching the mercy of God.

TUESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

We will not meet on Tuesday, February 3rd, but will resume on Tuesday, February 10th at 10:30am at Little America in the room by the reservation desk in the coffee shop. We will continue our enlightening and wonderful study of the BOOK OF REVELATION.

stewardship

sharing the gifts we have been given

Dear Parishioners,

Enclosed is a current list of stewards for the 2015 year. If your name is not on this list and you have made a stewardship commitment, please contact the church office at 801-328-9681. If you have not made a stewardship commitment, please do your part to help in the financial ministry of our community and our Orthodox Church. Our parish has many expenses and the help of everyone is required to keep us a vibrant community and to help spread Orthodoxy.

A steward is someone who has been entrusted with another's property and charged with the responsibility of managing it in the owner's best interest. So for us, stewardship is the act of lovingly returning to God a portion of His many gifts with which He has blessed each of us. Stewardship is a ministry that enables us to respond to Christ's love by perpetuating His Church's mission. Our giving of time, talent and treasure enables our parish to do Christ's work here on Earth through our many ministries, services and outreach programs.

If you haven't already, please make your stewardship commitment today or, if possible, increase your commitment with thanks to God.

Stewardship payments can be made on our website at gocslc.org, the Narthex, or the church office.
