

Epistle Reading

St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians 4:4-9

BRETHREN, rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let all men know your forbearance. The Lord is at hand. Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will keep your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, do; and the God of peace will be with you.

Gospel Reading

The Gospel of John 12:1-18

Six days before Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. There they made him a supper; Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at table with him. Mary took a pound of costly ointment of pure nard and anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (he who was to betray him), said "Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?" This he said, not that he cared for the poor but because he was a thief, and as he had the money box he used to take what was put into it. Jesus said, "Let her alone, let her keep it for the day of my burial. The poor you always have with you, but you do not always have me."

When the great crowd of the Jews learned that he was there, they came, not only on account of Jesus but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. So the chief priests planned to put Lazarus also to death, because on account of him many of the Jews were going away and believing in Jesus.

The next day a great crowd who had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, crying, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel!" And Jesus found a young donkey and sat upon it; as it is written, "Fear not, daughter of Zion; behold, your king is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt!" His disciples did not understand this at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that this had been written of him and had been done to him. The crowd that had been with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead bore witness. The reason why the crowd went to meet him was that they heard he had done this sign.

YOUTH MESSAGE

My Dear Beloved Youth,
Holy Week is fast approaching and I want to let you know that you are in my prayers and I am wishing you all a very Holy and Blessed walk with Christ during this very Holy Week. Our Holy Orthodox Church provides us this very amazing opportunity to experience and walk with Christ during the vast and large number of services during Holy Week. You now have the chance to look at, plan and prepare with your parents how and when you can participate. We need to first prepare by making our lives more simple and quiet. We need to limit our distractions, simplify our schedules, and let loose the cares of this world and plan on the Holy Week Services that we can attend. Sit down ahead of time and schedule things you can accomplish now so they won't interfere with Holy Week. Holy Week happens not only in Church but in our homes. Limit our time and set aside video games, TV. Computers, iPods and iPads and focus on Christ, and continue with our fasting, prayers, and scripture reading. Tell mom and dad to plan to spend time as a family with you as you focus on Christ and His Holy Passion and Resurrection. Talk about the upcoming week and the meaning of the Services and plan on the ones you will attend. Read together the Scripture story of Christ's Passion and Resurrection. Parents should plan meals, shopping and house work now so it won't interfere with your Journey together through Holy Week. Each of us should have our own Holy Week Service Book so we can follow along during the service and also have the opportunity to talk and discuss before and after the service what we will experience and what to expect. My Dear Beloved Children lets us prepare for Holy Week now. Let us begin to quiet our lives down, let loose the cares of this world, limit distractions and schedules and simplify the Week by focusing on the services and family time. Let this Holy Week be the most amazing, spiritually edifying and gratifying week of our lives. May your Journey to Christ's Holy Resurrection be a very joyful and loving time.

In His Love,
+fr. elias

IMPORTANT MESSAGES FROM FATHER MATTHEW

IMPORTANT! PREPARING FOR THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY UNCTION

While we all know that Holy Wednesday is the day on which the Sacrament of Holy Unction is celebrated, many who come to be anointed on this day do so without realizing they must be PROPERLY PREPARED. Just as Holy Communion is an occasion that demands of us a certain level of preparation, we should approach Holy Unction spiritually prepared, as well. While it is true that we are all sinners and will always remain sinners in this life, this does not excuse us from our responsibilities to prepare ourselves to be clean before the face of God. How do we cleanse ourselves in preparation for Holy Unction? -- By partaking in the soul-saving Sacrament of HOLY CONFESSION.

Many of us do not realize that we should refrain from any sacrament, especially Holy Communion and Holy Unction, without first having partaken of (at least twice a year!) Holy Confession – this includes married couples, single people, the elderly, the middle-aged, the young, and children from at least five years of age! Because many of us do not partake of the Sacrament of Holy Confession on a regular basis, we most certainly have accumulated sins that dirty our souls and which need to be confessed and remedied.

Many of us also do not realize that we should refrain from approaching the Sacraments if we have been engaging in any immoral sexual behaviors, or are in any relationship that is not blessed by God in the Sacrament of Marriage (living together, sexual relations outside of marriage, etc.).

It is important for us to teach and to model to our families that we should not approach the Holy Sacraments with carelessness, but that we should always approach with piety and attention, deep repentance and humility.

PLEASE REFER TO THE HOLY WEEK SERVICES which are listed elsewhere in this bulletin.

Our TUESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY will pause for Holy Week and Bright Week and will resume again on Tuesday, April 21 at 10:30am in the Little America Coffee Shop.

If you would like to receive my weekly FEED MY SHEEP e-message, and/or if you would also like to receive my bi-monthly CROSS+WALK newsletter (this newsletter can be mailed or emailed; the next issue should be available the end of April), please let me know by calling, texting, or writing me at 801-556-1139 or matthewthepriest@gmail.com.

*Humbly in Christ,
Father Matthew*
