

Epistle Reading

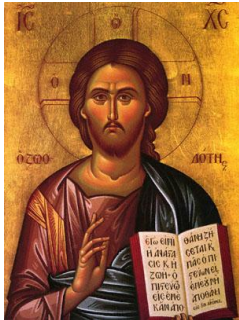

St. Paul's Letter to the Romans 6:18-23

Brethren, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit. Let us have no self-conceit, no provoking of one another, no envy of one another. Brethren, if a man is overtaken in any trespass, you who are spiritual should restore him in a spirit of gentleness. Look to yourself, lest you too be tempted. Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.

Gospel Reading

The Gospel of Matthew 8:28-34; 9:1

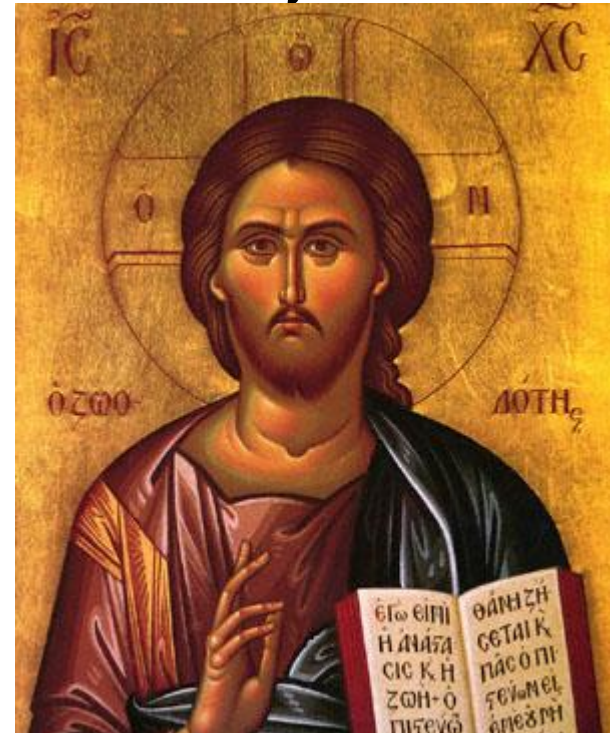

At that time, when Jesus came to the other side, to the country of the Gergesenes, two demoniacs met him, coming out of the tombs, so fierce that no one would pass that way. And behold, they cried out, "What have you to do with us, O Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?" Now a herd of many swine was feeding at some distance from them. And the demons begged him, "If you cast us out, send us away into the herd of swine." And he said to them, "Go." So they came out and went into the swine; and behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and perished in the waters. The herdsmen fled, and going into the city they told everything, and what had happened to the demoniacs. And behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus; and when they saw him, they begged him to leave their neighborhood. And getting into a boat he crossed over and came to his own city.

IMPORTANT MESSAGES FROM FATHER MATTHEW

MAY GOD HAVE MERCY UPON THE WORLD AND MAY WE RETURN TO HIS HOLY TEACHINGS The Church Fathers tell us that human beings know what is good by the law of their conscience and they are taught it by means of the Holy Gospel. But when they reject the good out of negligence, they arrive at a state of moral indifference or insensitivity, as Scripture tells us, “When an ungodly man comes into the depth of evil things, he acts contemptuously”. This blindness of the soul is described by the Apostle Paul as an operation of delusion and the acceptance of falsehood as truth. The voluntary fall of human beings from the natural and moral law into the power of sin is a total severance from God and adherence to the power and delusion of Satan which endows him with authority and transforms man into an instrument of perdition. Thus human beings stray from the truth and the impudent presence of evil puts enmity between the soul and the holy will of God, with the result that the soul prefers an intentionality that is hostile to God and against Christ and suffers a definitive fall. This lamentable alliance and cooperation between what is evil, wicked, absurd and unjust, this shoring up of perversion, of armed conflict, of bloodshed and every kind of diabolical delusion which, unfortunately, occurs in our days, does it not add up to a laudatory worship of the devil? May we begin to confess our sins and return, like the prodigal son, to our Lord and Savior.

The FEASTDAY of PROPHET ELIAS is two weeks away. Through great miracles, the holy Prophet Elias displayed the power and authority of God. How appropriate then, amidst our busy summer schedules, to take time out for prayerful reflection and beseech Prophet Elias for his intercession for our families, our parish, and our world. Orthros followed by Divine Liturgy will begin at 8:30am on Monday, July 20 and will be celebrated at Prophet Elias only.

Our TUESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY group has taken a summer break. We will be back toward the end of summer to continue our study of the book of Revelation. Until then, be well and safe and consider joining us when our Bible Study resumes!

*Humbly in Christ,
Father Matthew*
