

Epistle Reading

St. Paul's First Letter to the Romans 13:11-14; 14:1-4

Brethren, salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed; the night is far gone, the day is at hand. Let us then cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light; let us conduct ourselves becomingly as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarreling and jealousy. But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

As for the man who is weak in faith, welcome him, but not for disputes over opinions. One believes he may eat anything, while the weak man eats only vegetables. Let not him who eats despise him who abstains, and let not him who abstains pass judgment on him who eats; for God has welcomed him. Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for God is able to make him stand.

Gospel Reading

The Gospel According to Matthew 6:14-21

The Lord said, "If you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father also will forgive you; but if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

"And when you fast, do not look dismal, like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces that their fasting may be seen by men. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, that your fasting may not be seen by men but by your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

"Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."

Procession of the Icons

As an affirmation of their faith, all Sunday School students are encouraged to bring their icons next Sunday, March 20th, and participate in the Sunday of Orthodoxy procession.

The Parish Council extends a sincere thank you to all parishioners who gave their time, talent and resources to help prepare and execute the wonderful meal and atmosphere during the Metropolitan's recent visit for the grand re-opening of Prophet Elias Church. We appreciate the support of the community with their attendance last Sunday. The food was excellent!

IMPORTANT MESSAGES FROM FATHER MATTHEW

In the church, it is often said that there are more holy angels present than our breath. Just think what happens in the Divine Liturgy during the time of the Holy Eucharist! This is why a person should remain still, with his mind kneeling at the feet of Christ and the Panagia and saying with great care the words of the prayer, "Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on me", so that he feels it. The Grace of God compels a person to say to himself, "Whom will I partake of? Whom will I taste? How will I decorate the throne of my soul?" If, when we are expecting an important guest, we are careful to decorate the house with our gold and velvet and the best we have, how much more should we take care when we want to commune. How reverently should we approach the Holy Mysteries to receive our Christ!

VESPERS OF FORGIVENESS

TODAY, which is the eve of Great Lent, immediately following Divine Liturgy at both churches, we will gather and ask forgiveness of God and one another so that we may enter through the gates of this most spiritually profound period in the ecclesiastical year. All parish families are very much encouraged to remain for this truly beautiful FORGIVENESS VESPERS service, remembering that forgiveness is both the beginning of, and proper condition for, the upcoming Lenten season.

HOLY CONFESSION – A SOUL-SAVING SACRAMENT

We cannot take God's mercy for granted, for our Lord is not only a loving Father but also a righteous Judge. Each of us will receive recompense for our actions. May we all hearken to the voice of the Church, inviting us and urging us to "set out with joy upon the season of the Fast, and prepare ourselves for spiritual combat", that cleansed by fasting and the works of repentance, we may be led back into Paradise, into the everlasting joy of our Lord and Savior. It is with fatherly love and compassion that I encourage all parish families to see me -- your priest and spiritual father in this parish -- for the Sacrament of Holy Confession. I could not ask this of you if I, myself, ignored this absolutely necessary and soul-saving sacrament. I, too, confess to my spiritual father regularly throughout the year. So please call me to arrange a time for the Sacrament of Confession!

AS WE ENTER GREAT LENT

Today, the last of the preparatory Sundays before Great Lent, has two themes: it commemorates Adam's expulsion from Paradise, and, as we know, it is also the Sunday of Forgiveness. There are obvious reasons why these two things should be brought to our attention as we stand on the threshold of GREAT LENT. One of the primary images in the Triodion is that of the return to Paradise. Lent is a time when we weep with Adam and Even before the closed gate of Eden, repenting with them for the sins that have deprived us of our free communion with God. But Lent is also a time when we are preparing to celebrate the saving event of Christ's death and rising, which has reopened Paradise to us once more. So sorrow for our exile in sin is tempered by hope of our re-entry into Paradise.

Great Lent is a journey with a precise direction; it is the journey to PASCHA. The goal of our journey is concisely expressed in the closing prayer at the Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts: '...may we come uncondemned to worship at the Holy Resurrection...' Throughout the forty days we are reminded that we are on the move, travelling on a path that leads straight to Golgotha and the Empty Tomb. So let us set out with joy ...!

UPCOMING LENTEN SERVICES

At the heart of the Lenten effort is the struggle against the passions. The passions are spiritual or physical inclinations or instincts which, when uncontrolled, are destructive to both soul and body. Christian life is one of spiritual warfare against the passions, and during Lent, we are called to intensify our efforts in this war. The virtues are the positive counterparts of the passions, which we must struggle to attain and increase. One of the weapons we have in this spiritual war is prayer. It is therefore no coincidence that During Lent, Orthodox Christians increase and intensify their prayer. During Lent, as well as during other periods of fasting, the Church increases the number of services.

Let us, then, take advantage of the many opportunities we have to attend the weekly Lenten Services, for they can teach us much about repentance and return to God: on MONDAYS: Great Compline; on WEDNESDAYS: the Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts; on FRIDAYS: Salutations to the Theotokos.

Below are the SERVICES during this FIRST WEEK of GREAT LENT:

MONDAY, MARCH 14:

Service of Holy Unction, 10:30am at Prophet Elias only;
Great Compline Service, 6pm at Holy Trinity only

TUESDAY, MARCH 15:

First half of the Great Canon of Saint Andrew of Crete*, 10:30am at Holy Trinity only (*This canon is likened to a dialogue between the Christian and his soul. The central theme is the urgent exhortation to change one's life)

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16: Ninth Hour and Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts, 9:45am at Prophet Elias only

THURSDAY, MARCH 17: Second half of Great Canon of Saint Andrew of Crete, 10:30am at Prophet Elias only

FRIDAY, MARCH 18: 1st Salutations to the Theotokos, 6:30pm at both churches

SATURDAY, MARCH 19: 3rd Saturday of the Souls, Orthros and Divine Liturgy beginning at 9am at Holy Trinity only

TUESDAY MORNING WITH THE LORD

Our TUESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY will be held this Tuesday, March 15 at 11:30am at the Little America Coffee Shop. *Bible Study will be one hour later on Tuesday, March 15 due to the Lenten service earlier in the day.

We have a couple of weeks remaining on our Study on the Book of Revelation; after that, we will begin our Study of Corinthians and look forward to seeing you; you are always welcomed to join us!

SATURDAYS OF THE SOULS FINAL LITURGY

The third, and final, Saturday of the Souls Divine Liturgy will be celebrated on Saturday, March 19 (at Holy Trinity only) beginning with Orthros at 9am followed immediately by Liturgy. If you would like your departed loved ones commemorated at this service, please give your list of names to me (baptismal names only). Our Holy Orthodox Church commends to God all those departed before us, who are now awaiting the Last Judgment. For those of us who believe in the risen Christ, death does not constitute an impassable barrier, since all are alive in Him; the departed are still our brethren, members of the same family with us, and so we are conscious of the need to pray insistently on their behalf.

FASTING GUIDELINES IN PREPARATION FOR GREAT LENT AND PASCHA

Sunday, March 13 is the Last Day for Dairy products;

Beginning Monday, MARCH 14 we participate in a Strict Fast - as our personal health condition permits - and with the guidance of our spiritual father. On weekends during the Great Fast, wine and oil are allowed, and fish is allowed on the Feast of the Annunciation as well as on Palm Sunday.

SUNDAY OF ORTHODOXY ON MARCH 20

The sense of joy and thanksgiving is apparent on the first Sunday in Lent, when we celebrate the TRIUMPH OF ORTHODOXY with a PROCESSION -- at both churches - with the holy ICONS. While we tend to think of the procession with the Holy Icons as being especially for our Sunday School children, all of our parish faithful should, in fact, participate in this procession. Come with your icon next Sunday, March 20, and join us as we process around the nave of the church!

DAYS ON WHICH THERE CAN BE NO MEMORIALS SCHEDULED

Please be aware that NO Memorials can be scheduled on the Third Sunday of Great Lent which is the Veneration of the Holy Cross (April 3), and from the Saturday of Lazarus (April 23) through the Sunday of Thomas (May 8).

SATURDAY OF LAZARUS RETREAT

As we did last year, we will offer once again a SATURDAY OF LAZARUS RETREAT for our youth on Saturday, April 23 at Prophet Elias. Parents, please mark this on your calendars and plan to bring your children on this day. More details will follow!

*Humbly in Christ,
Father Matthew*

Youth Weekly Devotional

Journey to our Lords Holy Resurrection

My Dear Beloved Children as we begin our solemn journey through his holy time of Great Lent to our Lords Holy Resurrection I would like to take this opportunity to extend my prayers and wishes to you all for a very Holy and Blessed Lent. On this eve of the holy Forty-day Fast this Sunday, the Sunday of Forgiveness I also come before you in humility and ask for your forgiveness.

The past three weeks have provided us a road map and guide in how we should proceed to reach our destination. The wisdom of our Holy Orthodox Church provides the lessons to learn and follow through Gods word in the Gospel readings for each of the last three Sundays. The road signs are desire, humility and repentance. So let us venture on our journey together as a community and the body of Christ. Let us journey together to achieve the same goal and destination. Like an athletic team or dance troupe striving to achieve victory or a standing ovation we stand together to help and work to achieve the ultimate goal of coming to the love of God and each other. Let us strive together working and encouraging each other. Let us gather this Lenten period to share our desire, compassion and love to come to Christ's Holy Resurrection as His children. My prayer for us all as we look to the time ahead is to commit our time, prayers and devotion to all the opportunities available through the services, fasting and outreach to those in need. Let us come together to share in our vision and goal and work as a team and family. Let us encourage each other in the fast. Let us come together in worship and pray for each other. Let us strive to come to God's Holy Kingdom and live with God in our hearts. May our Lord grant you all His richest blessings, grace and love this Lenten period and always.

In His love and Service,

+fr. elias

YOUTH STEWARDSHIP

Each month we will select a Youth Steward of the Month from the submissions we receive, so I would like to ask from each of you to submit by email to my email address (freliaask@yahoo.com) on how you gave thanks to God. Please submit by the 25th of each month. So we can make a selection and post a picture and acknowledge your gifts of time and talent to all of us. Follow this format as an example:

This is how I thanked God this month:

My Time: _____

My Talent: _____

(If I can) My Treasure: $ _____

Time can include, worship, Sunday School, dance, basketball etc.

Talent can include tutoring, helping at home or school, with a project using your expertise, etc.

Days ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION PROTOCOL

The Church office receives several requests each week to send out "e-blasts" to the community. Many times these requests come in at the last minute. We understand that everyone's information regarding upcoming events is important, however due to scheduling and other administrative duties of the Church staff, the Church office will limit electronic communications to Wednesdays (event information) and Fridays (weekly bulletin). This means that if you desire to have a communication sent out during the week, it must be received in the Church offices by 12:00 PM on the day before the above designated dates for electronic communications. This does not relate to clergy communications which you may receive separately via email communication. We appreciate your understanding.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Please remember to have your information for the weekly Bulletin into the office each Tuesday, before noon. Thank you for your continued cooperation.

BULLETIN

In order to keep the weekly Church Bulletin relevant to upcoming events, we are asking that all organizations and individuals please limit your information to three weeks prior to your event. A "Save the Date" may also be provided with details to follow later if your event is more than the three weeks away from publication.

Philoptochos Membership Tea Date Change

Due to unforeseen circumstances it is necessary to change the date of the Philoptochos Membership Tea to next Saturday, March 19th from 11:30 am - 2:00 pm. It will still be held at the home of Georgia Katsohirakis; 6241 S. Shenandoah Park Ave (1765 E) Hope to see everyone there. Everyone is welcomed and invited. If you have any questions please call Georgia Katsourakis or Christy Daskalakis .

Hymns of Praises, Orthros, Sunday of Forgiveness

The arena of the virtues has been opened. Let all who wish to struggle for the prize now enter, girding themselves for the noble contest of the Fast; for those that strive lawfully are justly crowned.

Taking up the armor of the Cross, let us make war against the enemy. Let us have as our invincible rampart the Faith, prayer as our breastplate, and as our helmet almsgiving; and as our sword let us use fasting that cuts away all evil from our heart.

If we do this, we shall receive the true crown from Christ the King of all at the Day of Judgment.

Lent Begins Monday, March 14, 2016

DONATIONS FOR LENTEN FLOWERS

If you would like to donate towards the flowers needed during the Lenten Season to decorate the Kouvouklion and Icons, please send your donations to the church office, or give at the Narthex at either church. We are grateful for any donations.

Wishing you a blessed Lenten and Paschal Season!

SCHEDULING OF EVENTS

Please note that all events need to be scheduled through the church office. For any sacraments that need to be scheduled, please reach out to Fr. Matthew for scheduling.

If you have a meeting or event scheduled at either facility, please contact the church office at 801-328-9681 one week prior to your scheduled event, to arrange for access to the building, set-up and any other needs you may have to help us make your event a success. We appreciate your cooperation.
