

Epistle Reading

Acts of the Apostles 16:16-34

IN THOSE DAYS, as we apostles were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners much gain by soothsaying. She followed Paul and us, crying, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you the way of salvation." And this she did for many days. But Paul was annoyed, and turned and said to the spirit, "I charge you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And it came out that very hour. But when her owners saw that their hope of gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the market place before the rulers; and when they had brought them to the magistrates they said, "These men are Jews and they are disturbing our city. They advocate customs which it is not lawful for us Romans to accept or practice." The crowd joined in attacking them; and the magistrates tore the garments off them and gave orders to beat them with rods. And when they had inflicted many blows upon them, they threw them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely. Having received this charge, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks. But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them, and suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and every one's fetters were unfastened. When the jailer woke and saw that the prison doors were open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. But Paul cried with a loud voice, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here." And he called for lights and rushed in, and trembling with fear he fell down before Paul and Silas, and brought them out and said, "Men, what must I do to be saved?" And they said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household." And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all that were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their wounds, and he was baptized at once, with all his family. Then he brought them up into his house, and set food before them; and he rejoiced with all his household that he had believed in God.

Gospel Reading

The Gospel According to John 9:1-38

At that time, as Jesus passed by, he saw a man blind from his birth. And his disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" Jesus answered, "It was not that this man sinned, or his parents, but that the works of God might be made manifest in him. We must work the works of him who sent me, while it is day; night comes, when no one can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world." As he said this, he spat on the ground and made clay of the spittle and anointed the man's eyes with the clay, saying to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means Sent). So he went and washed and came back seeing. The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar, said, "Is not this the man who used to sit and beg?" Some said, "It is he"; others said, "No, but he is like him." He said, "I am the man." They said to him, "Then how were your eyes opened?" He answered, "The man called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes and said to me, 'Go to Siloam and wash'; so I went and washed and received my sight." They said to him, "Where is he?" He said, "I do not know." They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind. Now it was a Sabbath day when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes. The Pharisees again asked him how he had received his sight. And he said to them, "He put clay on my eyes and I washed, and I see." Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, for he does not keep the Sabbath." But others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" There was a division among them. So they again said to the blind man, "What do you say about him, since he has opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet." The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight, until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight, and asked them, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?" His parents answered, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; but how he now sees we do not know, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he is of age; he will speak for himself." His parents said this because they feared the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone should confess him to be Christ he was to be put out of the synagogue. Therefore, his parents said, "He is of age, ask him."

So for the second time they called the man who had been blind, and said to him, "Give God the praise; we know that this man is a sinner." He answered, "Whether he is a sinner, I do not know; one thing I know, that though I was blind, now I see." They said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" He answered them, "I have told you already and you would not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you too want to become his disciples?" And they reviled him, saying, "You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man, we do not know where he comes from." The man answered, "Why, this is a marvel! You do not know where he comes from, and yet he opened my eyes. We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshiper of God and does his will, God listens to him. Never since the world began has it been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a man born blind. If this man were not from God, he could do nothing." They answered him, "You were born in utter sin, and would you teach us?" And they cast him out. Jesus heard that they had cast him out, and having found him he said, "Do you believe in the Son of man?" He answered, "And who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?" Jesus said to him, "You have seen him, and it is he who speaks to you." He said, "Lord, I believe": and he worshiped him.

IMPORTANT MESSAGES FROM FATHER MATTHEW

CHRIST IS RISEN! ENDURING LIFE'S DIFFICULTIES JOYFULLY (PART ONE)

No one is exempt from sorrows and difficulties in this life. Therefore, we must try to endure life's difficulties joyfully because there is no other more beneficial road leading to the salvation of our soul as the narrow and sorrowful path of hardships, through which we mimic and follow our Lord Jesus Christ, who suffered so much in this life. He chose this path for both Himself as well as His followers, and advised us that we cannot become His disciples if we do not carry our cross and follow Him: "Whoever does not bear his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple."

We cannot hope to make progress in the spiritual life and become Christ's co-heirs along with all the saints in Paradise if we do not first swim through the waters of sorrow, just as our Lord and all the saints were glorified after first carrying their Cross. This cross of suffering is so noble and so highly regarded by the Lord that He Himself promises to be next to the person who suffers, to deliver him from his affliction, and to glorify him in a wondrous manner ("I will be with him in affliction; I will deliver him, and glorify him"). Who then will not embrace life's difficulties with joy and not seize the opportunity to acquire such a sweet, faithful, and almighty Companion? God, in His compassion and wisdom, allows us to be faced with these small and transient sorrows in order to grant us the indescribable and eternal riches in His Heavenly Kingdom.

TODAY is SUNDAY SCHOOL PROMOTION SUNDAY at both churches; class certificates will be presented to our Sunday School students following Divine Liturgy. We honor and thank our students, teachers, and all who helped to make our Sunday School programs successful this year! As our children begin their summer vacations, may we continue to be spiritual models for them, inspiring in them a love for Christ and His Church. As Saint John Chrysostom says, "Bring your children up with great, great care in the nurture and admonition of the Lord".

SUMMER HOURS BEGINS NEXT SUNDAY

Beginning next Sunday, June 12 thru September, we will observe "SUMMER HOURS" for Sunday services. This means that for SUNDAY liturgies, Orthros will begin at 8:30am, followed by Divine Liturgy at 9:30am.

However, for WEEKDAY liturgies, Orthros will remain 9:00am, followed immediately by Divine Liturgy, except where noted.

TUESDAY MORNING WITH THE LORD

Our next TUESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY will be held on Tuesday, June 7 at 10:30am at the Little America Coffee Shop. Every day is filled with the wonder and the glory of God if only we would open wide our spiritual eyes and seek the Lord. Through these humble bible study gatherings, may we learn to live our faith more consciously in the worship and life of our Holy Orthodox Church. We invite you to join us!

KEEPING CHRIST IN OUR SUMMER

Gazing upon the images of Christ the Savior, of His Most Pure Mother, and of God's saints, imagine in what glory our nature is clothed by God mercy, wisdom, and power, and what awaits those who faithfully serve Christ. Saint John of Kronstadt urges us all to LOVE the Lord and the holy law of His GOSPEL with all our HEART, with all our SOUL, and aspire to the honor of God's heavenly calling. We must PRAY fervently, then, to Christ our Lord and give ourselves wholly to Him for DIRECTION and He will guide us to ETERNAL LIFE and BLESSEDNESS. This week we will celebrate two major feasts with Orthros followed by Divine Liturgy: The APOTHOSIS ("Leave-taking") OF PASCHA on Wednesday, June 8 at Prophet Elias (This is the last day we sing Christ is Risen); and the ASCENSION OF OUR LORD on Thursday, June 9 at Holy Trinity.

ORTHODOX CHRISTIAN MINISTRY SUNDAY

The Assembly of Orthodox Bishops has designated Sunday, June 12 as ORTHODOX CHRISTIAN MINISTRY SUNDAY. No matter how far someone has fallen, they do not lose the image of God. It is through the Holy Orthodox Faith that the mud and mire of sin can be washed off these precious souls and they can begin to live a new life in Christ, even inside a darkened prison or jail cell. May we see people not as they are, but as they could become through the Holy Orthodox Faith. You may recall that our parish hosted a very informative Prison Ministry Retreat this past March. We are most grateful to our Orthodox faithful who took part in this wonderful retreat, as well as to those who made an offering for the continuation of this vital ministry of the church. Donations are always welcome! For more information, pamphlets regarding this ministry may be found in the narthex.

PENTECOST SUNDAY IS TWO WEEKS AWAY

***IMPORTANT*** On PENTECOST SUNDAY, June 19, which is the patronal FEASTDAY OF HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL, Prophet Elias will be closed so that all parish faithful may celebrate Orthros, Divine Liturgy, and the Vespers of Kneeling at Holy Trinity only. We know that, on the feast of Pentecost, the Holy Spirit descended upon the disciples of the Lord. Thus, on this day we acknowledge the TRINITY, holy and perfect, to consist of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Please make a special effort to attend services at Holy Trinity!

The LITURGICAL CELEBRATION for the feast of PENTECOST will INCLUDE:

SATURDAY OF THE SOULS*, 8:30am on Saturday morning, June 18 at Holy Trinity only (*Divine Liturgy only due to a sacrament immediately following);

GREAT VESPERS* on Saturday evening, June 18 at 5pm at Prophet Elias only (this will be held at Prophet Elias due to a sacrament taking place at Holy Trinity);

ORTHROS, DIVINE LITURGY and the VESPERS OF KNEELING on Sunday morning, June 19 beginning at 8:30am at Holy Trinity only;

FEAST of the HOLY SPIRIT on Monday, June 20 at Prophet Elias only (Orthros at 9am followed immediately by Divine Liturgy)

WEEK OF PENTECOST IS FAST-FREE

Please remember that, due to the dignity of the great Feast of Pentecost, and due to the glory, honor, and worship we render to the Holy, Consubstantial, Life-Creating and Undivided Trinity, the entire week of Pentecost (June 19-25) is FAST FREE.

THE HOLY APOSTLES FAST

This year the HOLY APOSTLES FAST begins on Monday, June 27 and ends with the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul on June 29. The duration of the Holy Apostles Fast varies every year. It always begins on the Monday immediately following the Sunday of All Saints until the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul. Thus, it may last from zero (0) days, if Pascha falls on May 3 or later – to up to 29 days, if Pascha falls on April 4 to May 2.

Truly He is Risen!
Fr. Matthew
