

Epistle Reading

St. Paul's Letter to the Romans 2:10-16

Brethren, glory and honor and peace for every one who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. All who have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified. When Gentiles who have not the law do by nature what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. They show that what the law requires is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness and their conflicting thoughts accuse or perhaps excuse them on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus.

Gospel Reading

The Gospel According to Matthew 4:18-23

At that time, as Jesus walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. And he said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Immediately they left their nets and followed him. And going on from there he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left their boat and their father, and followed him. And he went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every infirmity among the people.

IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM FATHER MATTHEW

Beloved Parish Faithful,

In my message last Sunday, I wrote, "when we experience difficulties and sorrows, let us not only endure them patiently without complaining, but let us rejoice, because, indeed, "The sufferings of this present life are not worthy of and cannot be compared to the future glory that will be revealed to us." How appropriate and comforting it is for me to be reminded of this as I and my family face whatever the Lord has written for our lives.

I am deeply touched by the love and genuine concern I have received from so many of you. As I had communicated with you last week via email, I am undergoing testing in Phoenix, Arizona to further evaluate my health and determine the best course of treatment. While I am awaiting the test results, I am determined to be in church this Sunday at Prophet Elias, to pray with all of you in seeking God's mercy for the entire world.

I ask for your continued fervent prayers for me, as well as your wonderful support, and I ask as well that you also demonstrate your immense love for our Lord by praying for, supporting, and being present for my family.

With much love in Christ,
Father Matthew
