St. Paul's Letter to Galatians 1:11-19

BRETHREN, I would have you know that the gospel which was preached by me is not man's gospel. For I did not receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came through a revelation of Jesus Christ. For you have heard of my former life in Judaism, how I persecuted the church of God violently and tried to destroy it; and I advanced in Judaism beyond many of my own age among my people, so extremely zealous was I for the traditions of my fathers. But when he who had set me apart before I was born, and had called me through his grace, was pleased to reveal his Son to me, in order that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not confer with flesh and blood, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia; and again I returned to Damascus. Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas, and remained with him fifteen days. But I saw none of the other apostles except James the Lord's brother.

The Gospel According to Luke 8:5-15

At that time, as Jesus arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, there met him a man from the city who had demons; for a long time he had worn no clothes and he lived not in a house but among the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him, and said with a loud voice, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beseech you, do not torment me." For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many a time it had seized him; he was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters, but he broke the bonds and was driven by the demon into the desert.) Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion"; for many demons had entered him. And they begged him not to command them to depart into the abyss. Now a large herd of swine was feeding there on the hillside; and they begged him to let them enter these. So he gave them leave. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and were drowned. When the herdsmen saw what happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country. Then people went out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. And those who had seen it told them how he who had been possessed with demons was healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked him to depart from them; for they were seized with great fear; so he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but he sent him away, saying, "Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you." And he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city how much Jesus had done for him.

PARISH COUNCIL CORNER

On Saturday, October 8, 2016 the Parish Council had a productive meeting with his Eminence Metropolitan Isaiah and Chancellor Zaharis. The discussion centered on assigning a priest to our community. We expressed the sense of urgency to his Eminence in having a priest assigned long term who will provide leadership and guidance to our community. His Eminence continues to interview potential candidates and we are hopeful to have a permanent assignment in the coming months. Metropolitan Isaiah indicated that a communication regarding steps being taken to assign a priest will be forthcoming. The Parish Council will continue to work with the Metropolis to staff clergy at both churches until a permanent assignment is provided by his Eminence. Thank you for your patience and understanding October 30, 2016 at 1:00 PM The Parish Council will be holding a Festival Feedback meeting at Holy Trinity. All chairpersons are invited and urged to attend. If you volunteered at the Festival and would like to attend, please do so. Your feedback is valuable in helping us plan for next year's festival. Lunch will be served.

SUICIDE PREVENTION

To follow up with September being Suicide Prevention Month across the United States and around the world. We need to continue the message. Suicidal thoughts can affect anyone regardless of age, gender or background and is the third leading cause of death among young people.

In Utah it is the highest ranking cause of death among our youth and the rate has more than doubled the national rate and continues to climb. This issue is important to address year around and we need to come together and become aware of this rising epidemic among the youth. Utah lawmakers have voted to create a smartphone app (safe Talk) where people can have confidential and anonymous chats with crises counselors at the University of Neuropsychiatric Institute. This message is to help promote awareness of resources and awareness around the issue of suicide prevention. Let us take the time to become suicide alert for everyone. These are some of the resources available. Get to know them and recognize persons with thoughts of suicide and connect them with suicide helping resources. These resources can also help if you know someone who may have been affected by suicide in their lives.

The Holy Great Martyr Demetrios
the Myrrh-streamer

Celebrated on October 26

Saint Demetrios suffered in Thessalonica during the reign of Galerius Maximian (c. 306). He belonged to one of the most distinguished families of the province of Macedonia and was widely admired not only because of his noble ancestry and grace of bearing, but also for virtue, wisdom and goodness of heart surpassing that of his elders.

The military expertise of Saint Demetrios led Galerius, as Caesar of the Eastern Empire, to appoint him commander of the Roman forces in Thessaly and Proconsul for Hellas. But for all this, Demetrios remained ever aware of the underlying realities of life. Since faith in Christ had touched his heart, all the glory of this world meant nothing to him, and there was nothing he preferred to teaching and preaching the word of God.

Despite the persecution directed against Christians by the Emperor, Saint Demetrios brought a large number of pagans to the faith. His words convinced them because they saw in the righteousness, peace and brotherly love that marked his life an illustration of the truth of which he spoke. Despite the persecution directed against Christians by the Emperor, Saint Demetrios brought a large number of pagans to the faith. His words convinced them because they saw in the righteousness, peace and brotherly love that marked his life an illustration of the truth of which he spoke.

The feast and commemoration of Saint Demetrios is celebrated with the Divine Liturgy of Saint John Chrysostom which is conducted on the morning of the feast and preceded by a Matins (Orthros) service. A Great Vespers is conducted on the evening before the day of the Feast
