

Epistle Reading

St. Paul's Letter to the Galatians 6:11-18

BRETHREN, see with what large letters I am writing to you with my own hand. It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh that would compel you to be circumcised, and only in order that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. For even those who receive circumcision do not themselves keep the law, but they desire to have you circumcised that they may glory in your flesh. But far be it from me to glory except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. Peace and mercy be upon all who walk by this rule, upon the Israel of God. Henceforth let no man trouble me; for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brethren. Amen.

Gospel Reading

The Gospel according to Luke 12:16-21

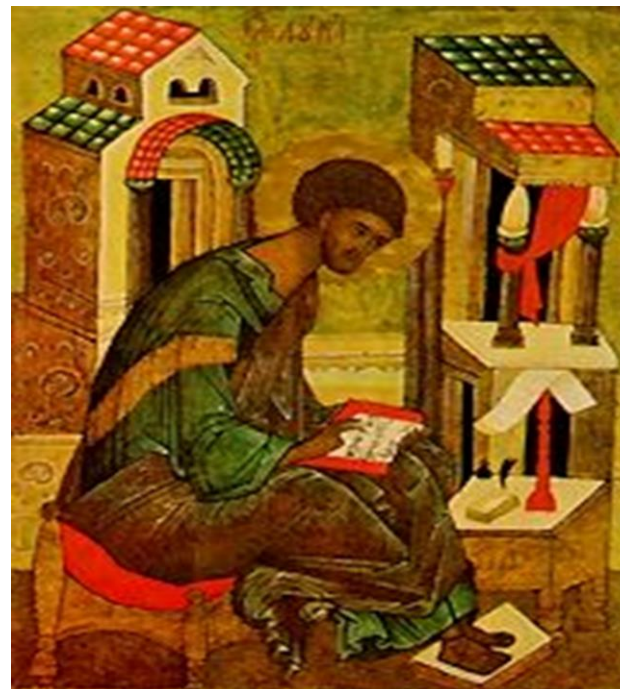

The Lord said this parable: "The land of a rich man brought forth plentifully; and he thought to himself, 'What shall I do, for I have nowhere to store my crops?' And he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns, and build larger ones; and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; take your ease, eat, drink, be merry.' But God said to him, 'Fool! This night your soul is required of you; and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?' So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God." As he said these things, he cried out: "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

Happy Thanksgiving and a very Holy and Blessed Nativity Season

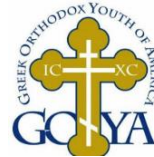

Dear Beloved Faithful,

I want to wish everyone a very Happy Thanksgiving and a very Holy and Blessed Nativity season. As we gather on this special day set aside to give thanks, let us gather in the name of our Lord and give thanks to God for the gift of life and all the many blessings that comes from our Creator and for our Resurrected Lord's transformation of our lives. May we gather with friends and family in fellowship and gratitude and nurture the bonds of love and the love of God. Let our homes be a dwelling of Christ with family and be a place of love, care, healing and forgiveness. Let us all experience the love that flows from God for each of us and share and extend that love to all. May our Lord and God grant His richest blessings and be in the midst of your gatherings as you gather in His love and fellowship to offer gratitude and love. Let our gratitude come from more of the awareness of God's presence and goodness than from our material possessions.

Have a blessed Thanksgiving and I give thanks for the blessing of being His servant in humble service to you.

In His Love and Service.

PARENTING INFORMATION AND ADVICE TO HELP NAVIGATE THE DIGITAL ARENA

When should our children have a cell phone is a decision we face and presents some challenges and concerns we need to be aware of. Most of our children now have a cell phone so there are things we need to be aware of as well. We want our children to be safe and cell phones provide that assurance for us. Our children want and use the phones for games and social communication, but they also have a portable computer and mobile internet capability with the phone technology available today. We will be having a Parish Family Night on Sunday, January 29, 2017 at Prophet Elias. Save the date and enjoy an evening of dinner, and information to help us not only keep our children safe but discuss issues of privacy, inappropriate texts/photos and safety. Open to families and children ages 3 to 18 years of age. Plan to attend and develop a strategy to navigate the digital world with your family. Any thoughts or concerns please call Fr.
