

Epistle Reading
Colossians 3:4-11

BRETHREN, when Christ who is our life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience. In these you once walked, when you lived in them. But now put them all away; anger, wrath, malice, slander, and foul talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old nature with its practices and have put on the new nature, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. Here there cannot be Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free man, but Christ is all, and in all.

Gospel Reading
Luke 17:12-19

At that time, as Jesus entered a village, He was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance and lifted up their voices and said: "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us." When He saw them He said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went they were cleansed. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; and he fell on his face at Jesus's feet, giving Him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan. Then said Jesus: "Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine? Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" And He said to him: "Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well."

Saints & Feasts Commemorated

January 19, 2014

12th Sunday of Luke
Macarius the Great of Egypt
Mark, Bishop of Ephesus
Arsenius of Corfu
Makarios of Alexandria.

Mark, Bishop of Ephesus

The great teacher and invincible defender of the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church, Saint Mark, was the offspring and scion of the imperial city, Constantinople. Reared by most pious parents, and instructed in secular and spiritual wisdom, he became preeminent in both. Saint Mark lived as an ascetic on the Prince's Islands and later in the monastery of Saint George Magana in Constantinople. He passed through all the degrees of the priesthood, and was finally advanced to the dignity of Archbishop and the lofty throne of the Metropolis of Ephesus. At the insistence of Emperor John Paleologos, the Saint was sent to the council of the Latins in Florence, to unite the churches that had been divided for so many years. He astounded the papal teachers with the divine wisdom of his words, and was the only one who did not sign the blasphemous decree of that false council. Because of this, the Holy Church of Christ has ever honored this great man as a benefactor, teacher, sole defender, and invincible champion of the Apostolic Confession. He reposed in 1443.

Holy Trinity Philoptochos

The Holy Trinity Philoptochos would like to thank all that were present for the Vasilopita Celebration this past Sunday.

Through your kind and generous donations of either baking or purchasing a Vasilopita and loukoumades, you all helped in the process to perpetuate the work of Philoptochos in donation to St. Basils Academy.

Thank you to all the ladies and men who helped with the event either in the kitchen making loukoumades or selling the Vasilopitas, your efforts are appreciated

Please join us for our next general meeting Wednesday, February 12th 6:30pm at Holy Trinity. We will be making sandwiches for the homeless and teen shelters.

Prophet Elias Philoptochos

On Sunday, January 26th Mr. Greg Karahalios will be honored for his years of dedicated service to Prophet Elias. Immediately following Liturgy the Prophet Elias Philoptochos will serve a light lunch to recognize Mr. Karahalios who has given so much of his time and talent to our parish. Please join us for this celebration.
