

Epistle Reading

Romans 2:10-16

Brethren, glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. All who have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified. When Gentiles who have not the law do by nature what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. They show that what the law requires is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness and their conflicting thoughts accuse or perhaps excuse them on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 4:18-23

At that time, as Jesus walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. And he said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Immediately they left their nets and followed him.

And going on from there he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left their boat and their father, and followed him. And he went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every infirmity among the people.

Dear Parishioners,

Enclosed is a current list of stewards for the 2014 year as of June 20th. If your name is not on this list and you have made a stewardship commitment, please contact the church office at 801-328-9681. If you have not made a stewardship commitment, please do your part to help in the financial ministry of our community and our Orthodox Church. Our parish has many expenses and the help of everyone is required to keep us a vibrant community and to help spread Orthodoxy.

A steward is someone who has been entrusted with another's property and charged with the responsibility of managing it in the owner's best interest. So for us, stewardship is the act of lovingly returning to God a portion of His many gifts with which He has blessed each of us. Stewardship is a ministry that enables us to respond to Christ's love by perpetuating His Church's mission. Our giving of time, talent and treasure enables our parish to do Christ's work here on Earth through our many ministries, services and outreach programs.

If you haven't already, please make your stewardship commitment today or, if possible, increase your commitment with thanks to God. Stewardship payments can be made on our website at gocslc.org, the Narthex, or the church office.
