

Epistle Reading St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians 1:10-17

BRETHREN, I appeal to you by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree and that there be no dissensions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgment. For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there is quarreling among you, my brethren. What I mean is that each one of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ." Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius; lest any one should say that you were baptized in my name. (I did baptize also the household of Stephanas. Beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized any one else.) For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power.

Gospel Reading The Gospel of Matthew 14:14-22

At that time, Jesus saw a great throng; and he had compassion on them, and healed their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a lonely place, and the day is now over; send the crowds away to go into the villages and buy food for themselves." Jesus said, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." They said to him, "We have only five loaves here and two fish." And he said, "Bring them here to me." Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass; and taking the five loaves and the two fish he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and broke and gave the loaves to the crowds. And they all ate and were satisfied. And they took up twelve baskets full of the broken pieces left over. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children. Then he made the disciples get into the boat and go before him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds.

Church Directory Update

We now have over 500 parishioners listed in the online directory. Most of the entries do not have a photo. We will be taking your photo for free during the next few weeks to insert in the directory. George Karahalios will be at Holy Trinity on Sunday, August 10th and at Prophet Elias on Sunday, August 17th. He will take pictures after liturgy for placement in the Parish directory.

Please understand you will NOT be solicited to purchase any packages. The purpose of these photos is strictly for use in the church directory. If you want personal copies for yourself, you will need to call George to make arrangements. He will not initiate contact with you.

If you need the church directory application for your smart phone, you can download it from the website (gocslc.org). The link is in the upper right-hand corner. We will also be staffed at each church while George is taking photos to download the app for you.

If you are not yet listed in the church directory, forms will be available for you to fill out all the information you choose to appear in the online directory. You control how much or how little information will be available to your fellow parishioners. Fill out the form and have your picture taken. We will take care of the rest. Printed copies will be available for purchase just before the festival.

Most churches have budgets, and most budgets are determined by anticipated income in the form of commitments for a fiscal year. Wise management by the Parish Council allows our church to live within its means throughout the year if cash flow is relatively constant, i.e. if your commitment monies are received regularly. However, there is one time of the year which presents financial difficulties and that time of the year is upon us –SUMMER.

Sometimes people joke about the lamp of Christendom burning low in July and August, but there is no hilarity for many churches, including our own parish. Summer is a time to cultivate a sense of wonder over God's created world (as stated above). But did you know that your gift can also work wonders, even in the summertime when you are away on vacation? Be wonderful and be a wonderworker. Remember your church commitment, even when you are away on holiday.

You know, the months of July and August are hard on the Church's checkbook. Historically, we lag behind commitments. Your help is needed during August "dog days". Please take the heat off your church this month by bringing your commitment current or if a well deserved rest still awaits you, by prepaying before you go. YOUR CHURCH NEEDS YOUR REGULAR AND CONSTANT SUPPORT!
