

Epistle Reading

St. Paul's Second Letter to Timothy 2:1-10

TIMOTHY, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus, and what you have heard from me before many witnesses entrust to faithful men who will be able to teach others also. Share in suffering as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. No soldier on service gets entangled in civilian pursuits, since his aim is to satisfy the one who enlisted him. An athlete is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules. It is the hardworking farmer who ought to have the first share of the crops. Think over what I say, for the Lord will grant you understanding in everything.

Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, descended from David, as preached in my gospel, the gospel for which I am suffering and wearing fetters like a criminal. But the word of God is not fettered. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain salvation in Christ Jesus with its eternal glory.

Gospel Reading

The Gospel of Luke 8:26-39

At that time, as Jesus arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, there met him a man from the city who had demons; for a long time he had worn no clothes and he lived not in a house but among the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him, and said with a loud voice, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beseech you, do not torment me." For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many a time it had seized him; he was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters, but he broke the bonds and was driven by the demon into the desert.) Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion"; for many demons had entered him. And they begged him not to command them to depart into the abyss. Now a large herd of swine was feeding there on the hillside; and they begged him to let them enter these. So he gave them leave. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and were drowned. When the herdsmen saw what happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country. Then people went out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. And those who had seen it told them how he who had been possessed with demons was healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked him to depart from them; for they were seized with great fear; so he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but he sent him away, saying, "Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you." And he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city how much Jesus had done for him.

“Honoring our Veterans” Luncheon

November 9, 2014

Following Divine Liturgy at Holy Trinity
Sponsored by Holy Trinity Philoptochos

The community is invited to "celebrate" and express our love for our country, as well as the love we have for the men and women who serve in the Military in order to allow us to live freely in each aspect of our lives.

Please join with us on November 9, 2014, for lunch, following Divine Liturgy, in the Memorial Building at Holy Trinity.

We ask all generations, to gather photos of family members who are or were a part of America's/Greece's Armed Forces. It is our plan to show a 'pictorial history', a wall of honor that will tell the story of their bravery, as we honor their sacrifice.

We ask that you bring a photo before 11am to the hall. Please identify the year, and the location the photo was taken, the name and where they served, of the person/people in the photo(s), to display for all to see.

Please help us pay tribute by including their photo in this wonderful display that will express our love for them and honor their sacrifice.

We thank you and look forwarding to a wonderful tribute.

If you need any further information, please contact Connie Yengich at 801-793-9393.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICTURE DAY

WONDERING WHAT TO DO ON OCTOBER 31? COME TO CHURCH!

On Friday evening, October 31 at 6pm at Prophet Elias only, there will be DIVINE LITURGY for the Feast of SAINTS COSMAS AND DAMIANOS followed by a special prayer to the HOLY ARCHANGELS as an ALTERNATIVE to the secular recognition of 'Halloween'. As Orthodox Christians, may we resolve to make this evening one of heightened prayer with our families, calling upon the Lord, His Mother, the Saints, and of the Bodiless Powers – the Angels – to protect us from all visible and invisible enemies.

TUESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY UPDATE

Tuesday, October 28 at 10:30am in the Little America lounge area. For those who have always been interested in studying the BOOK OF REVELATION, our Tuesday Morning Bible Study Group will begin the study of Revelation in November (We are currently finishing up the study of the Acts of the Apostles). The book we will use to study Revelation -- "The Apocalypse of Saint John" by Lawrence R. Farley, is now available for purchase for $15. Please contact me directly if you would like to purchase one. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to call me.

Humbly in Christ, Father Matthew

 Board Meeting *****

There will be a board meeting on October 27th at Prophet Elias at 6:30pm

Christian Stewardship is...

A grateful and responsible use of God's gifts in the light of God's purpose as revealed in Jesus Christ. Christian stewards, empowered by the Holy Spirit, commit themselves to conscious, purposeful decisions.

Stewardship is lived out in:

- living and telling the Good News;
- sharing with God in seeking justice, peace, and the integrity of creation in an interdependent universe;
- wisely employing God-given human resources, abilities, and relationships;
- sharing the material resources we hold and giving them in service, justice, and compassion;
- providing for future generations;
- sharing in the life, worship, and responsible stewardship of the Church and of its mission.

Both for the individual and for the community, stewardship is a joyful act for the sake of God's world.

A donation is a gift given typically for charitable purposes and/or to benefit a cause.

A donation may take various forms, including cash offering, services, new or used goods including clothing, toys, food, and vehicles. It also may consist of emergency, relief or humanitarian aid items, development aid support, and can also relate to medical care needs.

Charitable gifts of goods or services are also called gifts in kind.

* You may now pay your stewardship by debit or credit card in the narthex at Prophet Elias Church. We expect to have Holy Trinity Cathedral on line by the end of October.
