

Epistle Reading

St. Paul's Letter to the Galatians 6:11-18

Brethren, see with what large letters I am writing to you with my own hand. It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh that would compel you to be circumcised, and only in order that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. For even those who receive circumcision do not themselves keep the law, but they desire to have you circumcised that they may glory in your flesh. But far be it from me to glory except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation.

Peace and mercy be upon all who walk by this rule, upon the Israel of God. Henceforth let no man trouble me; for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brethren. Amen

Gospel Reading

The Gospel of Luke 8:41-56

At that time, there came to Jesus a man named Jairus, who was a ruler of the synagogue; and falling at Jesus' feet he besought him to come to his house, for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. As he went, the people pressed round him. And a woman who had had a flow of blood for twelve years and had spent all her living upon physicians and could not be healed by anyone, came up behind him, and touched the fringe of his garment; and immediately her flow of blood ceased. And Jesus said, "Who was it that touched me?"

When all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the multitudes surround you and press upon you!" But Jesus said, "Some one touched me; for I perceive that power has gone forth from me." And when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been immediately healed. And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace." While he was still speaking, a man from the ruler's house came and said, "Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the Teacher any more." But Jesus on hearing this answered him, "Do not fear; only believe, and she shall be well." And when he came to the house, he permitted no one to enter with him, except Peter and John and James, and the father and mother of the child. And all were weeping and bewailing her; but he said, "Do not weep; for she is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead. But taking her by the hand he called, saying, "Child, arise." And her spirit returned, and she got up at once; and he directed that something should be given her to eat. And her parents were amazed; but he charged them to tell no one what had happened.

“Honoring our Veterans”
Luncheon

November 9, 2014

Following Divine Liturgy at Holy Trinity
Sponsored by Holy Trinity Philoptochos

The community is invited to "celebrate" and express our love for our country, as well as the love we have for the men and women who serve in the Military in order to allow us to live freely in each aspect of our lives.

Please join with us on November 9, 2014, for lunch, following Divine Liturgy, in the Memorial Building at Holy Trinity.

We ask all generations, to gather photos of family members who are or were a part of America's/Greece's Armed Forces. It is our plan to show a 'pictorial history', a wall of honor that will tell the story of their bravery, as we honor their sacrifice.

We ask that you bring a photo before 11am to the hall. Please identify the year, and the location the photo was taken, the name and where they served, of the person/people in the photo(s), to display for all to see.

Please help us pay tribute by including their photo in this wonderful display that will express our love for them and honor their sacrifice.

We thank you and look forwarding to a wonderful tribute.

If you need any further information, please contact Connie Yengich at 801-793-9393.

Saturday November 22nd - HOLIDAY BOUTIQUE at 9:00am-4:00pm

It is time again for our Holiday Boutique. We look forward to seeing everyone on Saturday November 22nd. Over 50 artisans from throughout the Salt Lake valley as well as our own talented parishioners fill both gyms at Prophet Elias with unique and varied gifts and crafts. We will also, have delicious food and desserts for sale. The popularity of this boutique has grown every year and is well supported by our neighbors, friends, and family. The funds raised support the many charities and needs helped by our chapter throughout the year. Come support the artisans and your community. Get a head start on your Christmas Shopping. See you at Prophet Elias on Saturday, November 22nd!

Annual Christmas Angel Tree

We are again providing assistance through the generosity of our Community to families who are in need during the Christmas Season. Please help those in need by choosing an angel off our wreaths that are now placed in the Narthex of both churches. Thank you.

IMPORTANT MESSAGES FROM FATHER MATTHEW

HOLY TRINITY GODPARENT SUNDAY TODAY

All GODPARENTS are warmly encouraged to worship with their GODCHILDREN at Holy Trinity TODAY as we honor this holy relationship between Godparent and Godchild. I will offer a brief, yet very special prayer service honoring our Godparents and Godchildren on this day. The responsibilities of Godparents are awesome and demanding, since they are also responsible, together with the parents, for the beloved child's spiritual development. Godparent Sunday at Prophet Elias will take place in March.

TUESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

Thank you for your patience as we take these next two weeks to complete the concluding chapters in our study of the Acts of the Apostles. We will meet this Tuesday, November 11, as well as Tuesday 18 at 10:30am in the Little Americalounge area. We will not meet on Tuesday, November 25 which falls during the week of the Thanksgiving holiday. We are planning to begin our study of the BOOK OF REVELATION on Tuesday, December 2. It is said that the more the journey of the Church continues through the centuries toward the end (which coincides with the end of history), the more the temptations and difficulties will increase culminating in the appearance of the Antichrist. We invite and encourage as many of our parish faithful who are able to take part in the study of Revelation according to our Holy Orthodox Church. I am now accepting orders of the study book we will use -- "The Apocalypse of Saint John" by Lawrence R. Farley. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me.

HAVE YOU SIGNED UP FOR THE CROSS+WALK PUBLICATION?

Soon I will begin work on the second issue of the CROSS+WALK newsletter which is designed to aid our parish families in their spiritual lives. If you are one of the many who have already requested the first issue, you are already included on my listserver and you will automatically receive each subsequent issue. If you are interested in receiving this newsletter but have not yet contacted me, please do so by calling or texting me at 556-1139, or you may email me at matthewthepriest@gmail.com. For those who have requested the newsletter to be mailed, thank you for your patience; I have just mailed it.

Humbly in Christ, Father Matthew
